Privacy Act Statement

This statement outlines the purposes for the collection and use of personal information. Only information needed to respond to program requirements will be requested. Collection, use, and disclosure of personal information are in accordance with the Privacy Act. In some cases, information may be disclosed without your consent pursuant to subsection 8(2) of the Privacy Act. The authority to collect and use personal information for the Indian Registration and the Secure Certificate of Indian Status programs is derived from the Indian Act. We use the personal information we collect to determine entitlement to registration in the Indian Register and membership in a First Nation for which the Band List is maintained by the Department, to issue a Secure Certificate of Indian Status to registered persons, and for the provision of benefits and services conferred exclusively to those who are registered. We may share the personal information you provide as outlined under Personal Information Bank AANDC PPU110 (Info Source https://www.sac-isc.gc.ca/eng/1353081939455). The information collected is retained by the Department for 30 years after the last administrative action and then transferred to Library and Archives Canada (or as described in the Personal Information Bank). As stated in the Privacy Act, you have the right to access the personal information you give us and request changes to incorrect information. If you have questions or wish to notify us of incorrect information, you may call us at 1-800-567-9604. ### NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

If you identify with an Indigenous group that is not recognized under the Indian Act (non-status), you may wish to consult with that group before proceeding with an application for registration for yourself, a minor child or dependent adult. Registration under the Indian Act in Canada may affect your entitlement to join or be recognized by some non-status groups and your entitlement to the programs and services they may offer. The Indian Registrar does not have the authority to remove a name from the Indian Register if the person has been correctly registered, even when the person requests to deregister.

The Secure Certificate of Indian Status (SCIS) remains at all times the property of the Government of Canada and must only be used by the person in whose name it is issued. Any false or misleading statement with respect to this application and any supporting document, including the concealment of any material fact, selling or permitting the use of your SCIS by any other person or agency may lead to criminal prosecution, and is cause for revocation of your SCIS and refusal to issue a SCIS in the future. Any false or misleading statement, including the concealment of any material fact, may lead to a review of your entitlement to registration and revocation of your registered Indian status.
